HUNTING GUIDELINES

Ground Rules For all suggested activities, please be aware that it is your responsibility to take on activities (such as hiking, cycling, boating, walking, etc.) at your own skill level. We have tried to provide many options and alternatives - so something for people of all levels! You can always email, call, or ask a site when visiting it to inquire as to (a) what skills, equipment/supplies, etc. are needed to take on various activities or (b) for recommendations for what to do with the specific skill level you/your group has.

IMAGE & LIABILITY RELEASE

By participating in The Hunt participants (a) take on full personal responsibility for any risk, injury, or harm that may come from the activities they pursue during or in relation to The Hunt; (b) commit to pursuing all activities related to The Hunt in a safe and responsible manner that is both considerate of those around them and also within their individual capability levels; and (c) agree to indemnify and hold The Vermont Cheese Council (VCC) harmless of any and release VCC of all liability due and or related to participation in this event. Participants also agree that in participating, submitted images may be utilized in Vermont Cheese Council marketing and promotional materials.

GET CHEESY

Visit a cheesemaker at ONE of the following locations and take a photo of yourself visiting the cheesemaker/business location to complete this clue:

(1) A cheesemaker's farmstand or store. You can find cheesemakers' farmstands/stores on the Vermont Cheese Trail here: <https://vtcheese.com/vermont-cheese-trail-map>. Please note: Not all makers have farmstands/are open to the public - so do be sure you are visiting one that is labeled "open" on the trail map or uses the 'cheese wedge' icon - which means they are open to visitors IF you call ahead. Using the trail map, you can find their phone numbers to do just that; we recommend calling at least a day in advance if possible - and a few sites may give you a site tour if you call/plan ahead too (it never hurts to ask!). OR ...

(2) At a local farmers markets. Find a market here: <https://nofavt.org/find-organic-local-food/farmers-markets>.

Insider tip: We recommend reviewing the market online/asking them via email to make sure a cheesemaker is at the market. Not all have cheesemakers present!

FIND IT...

Visit a local cheese shop (see list earlier in our clue packet of where to go) and find a Vermont cheesemaker or Vermont cheese whose name contains BOTH

(a) the LAST LETTER of any team member's FIRST NAME and

(b) the FIRST LETTER of any team member's FIRST NAME.

To complete this clue: Share a pic of a team member with the cheese you found!

(Tell the store you're in that you're there to do The Vermont Cheese Council's Cheese Hunt - they like knowing we sent you there!)

Not a requirement - but fun: Eat your cheesily named companion...the cheese, not the person.

GET ARTY

Pick one:

(1) Head to the Path of Life Sculpture Garden in Windsor! Take a pic with your favorite sculpture/item in the garden to complete this clue! Is it the giant sculpture people? The maze? Please check the website for hours and know that there is a fee to enter - Last we checked, this was: $6 for 13+, $3 for ages 3-12, free for those under 3. Website: <https://greatriveroutfitters.com/news-and-events/welcome-to-the-path-of-life-sculpture-garden>

Insider tip: Towns all along I-91 in this region of Vermont are packed with great cooperative grocery stores – all of which

LEG STRETCH & LEARNING STOP

Explore the Upper Connecticut River Valley area of this region by doing ONE of the following:

1. Hike Eagle's Bluff from the Cross Rivendell Trail and get a birds eye view of Lake Morey. Neat fact: Lake Morey has the longest plowed outdoor skating loop in the US in winter.
2. Stroll through the woods to find the Grand Canyon of Norwich.
3. Take a paddle on the Connecticut River and look for eagles or herons. Dartmouth Outdoor Club offers canoe and kayak rentals.

To complete this clue: Take a picture of your team on this adventure!

PICNIC TIME...

Pack up some Vermont cheese for this one!

Enjoy the shade of sugar maples and 400-year-old hemlocks, while you pass through covered bridges and alongside rambling stone walls - by visiting Vermont's only national park!

To complete this clue: Walk its gardens, climb up to its south peak, loop the pogue, or find another way to enjoy this beautiful landscape - and take a picture of at least one team member with your cheese on your adventure!

Insider tip: There are many places to swing by and grab cheese in this region; to find one, consult the list of places to find cheese that is at the start of your clue packet!

TAKE IN THE VIEW

Solve my riddle below and a pic at my top from the road or take the 1/2 mile trail to the bottom to take a pic from the rocks to complete this clue.

At around 165 feet,
I'm the deepest of my kind,
not just in Vermont, but all of New England, mind.
I go under the Route in this region where its name matches the number of sides on a square.
